#7 world wide

SAIC Company

Annual production:
7 million vehicles

Number 1 vehicle manufacturer in China

Global ranking vehicle manufacurer:
Number 7

Fortune Global 500 - 2018:
Number 36

SAIC MOTOR & SMAC

- Largest Vehicle manufaturer in China
- number 36 on Fortune 500, 2018
- More than 7 million vehicles sold in 2018, worlds 7th largest vehicle manufacturer

- SAIC MAXUS Automotive Company (SMAC), fully owned company of SAIC MOTOR.
- Producer of commercial vehicles

RSA

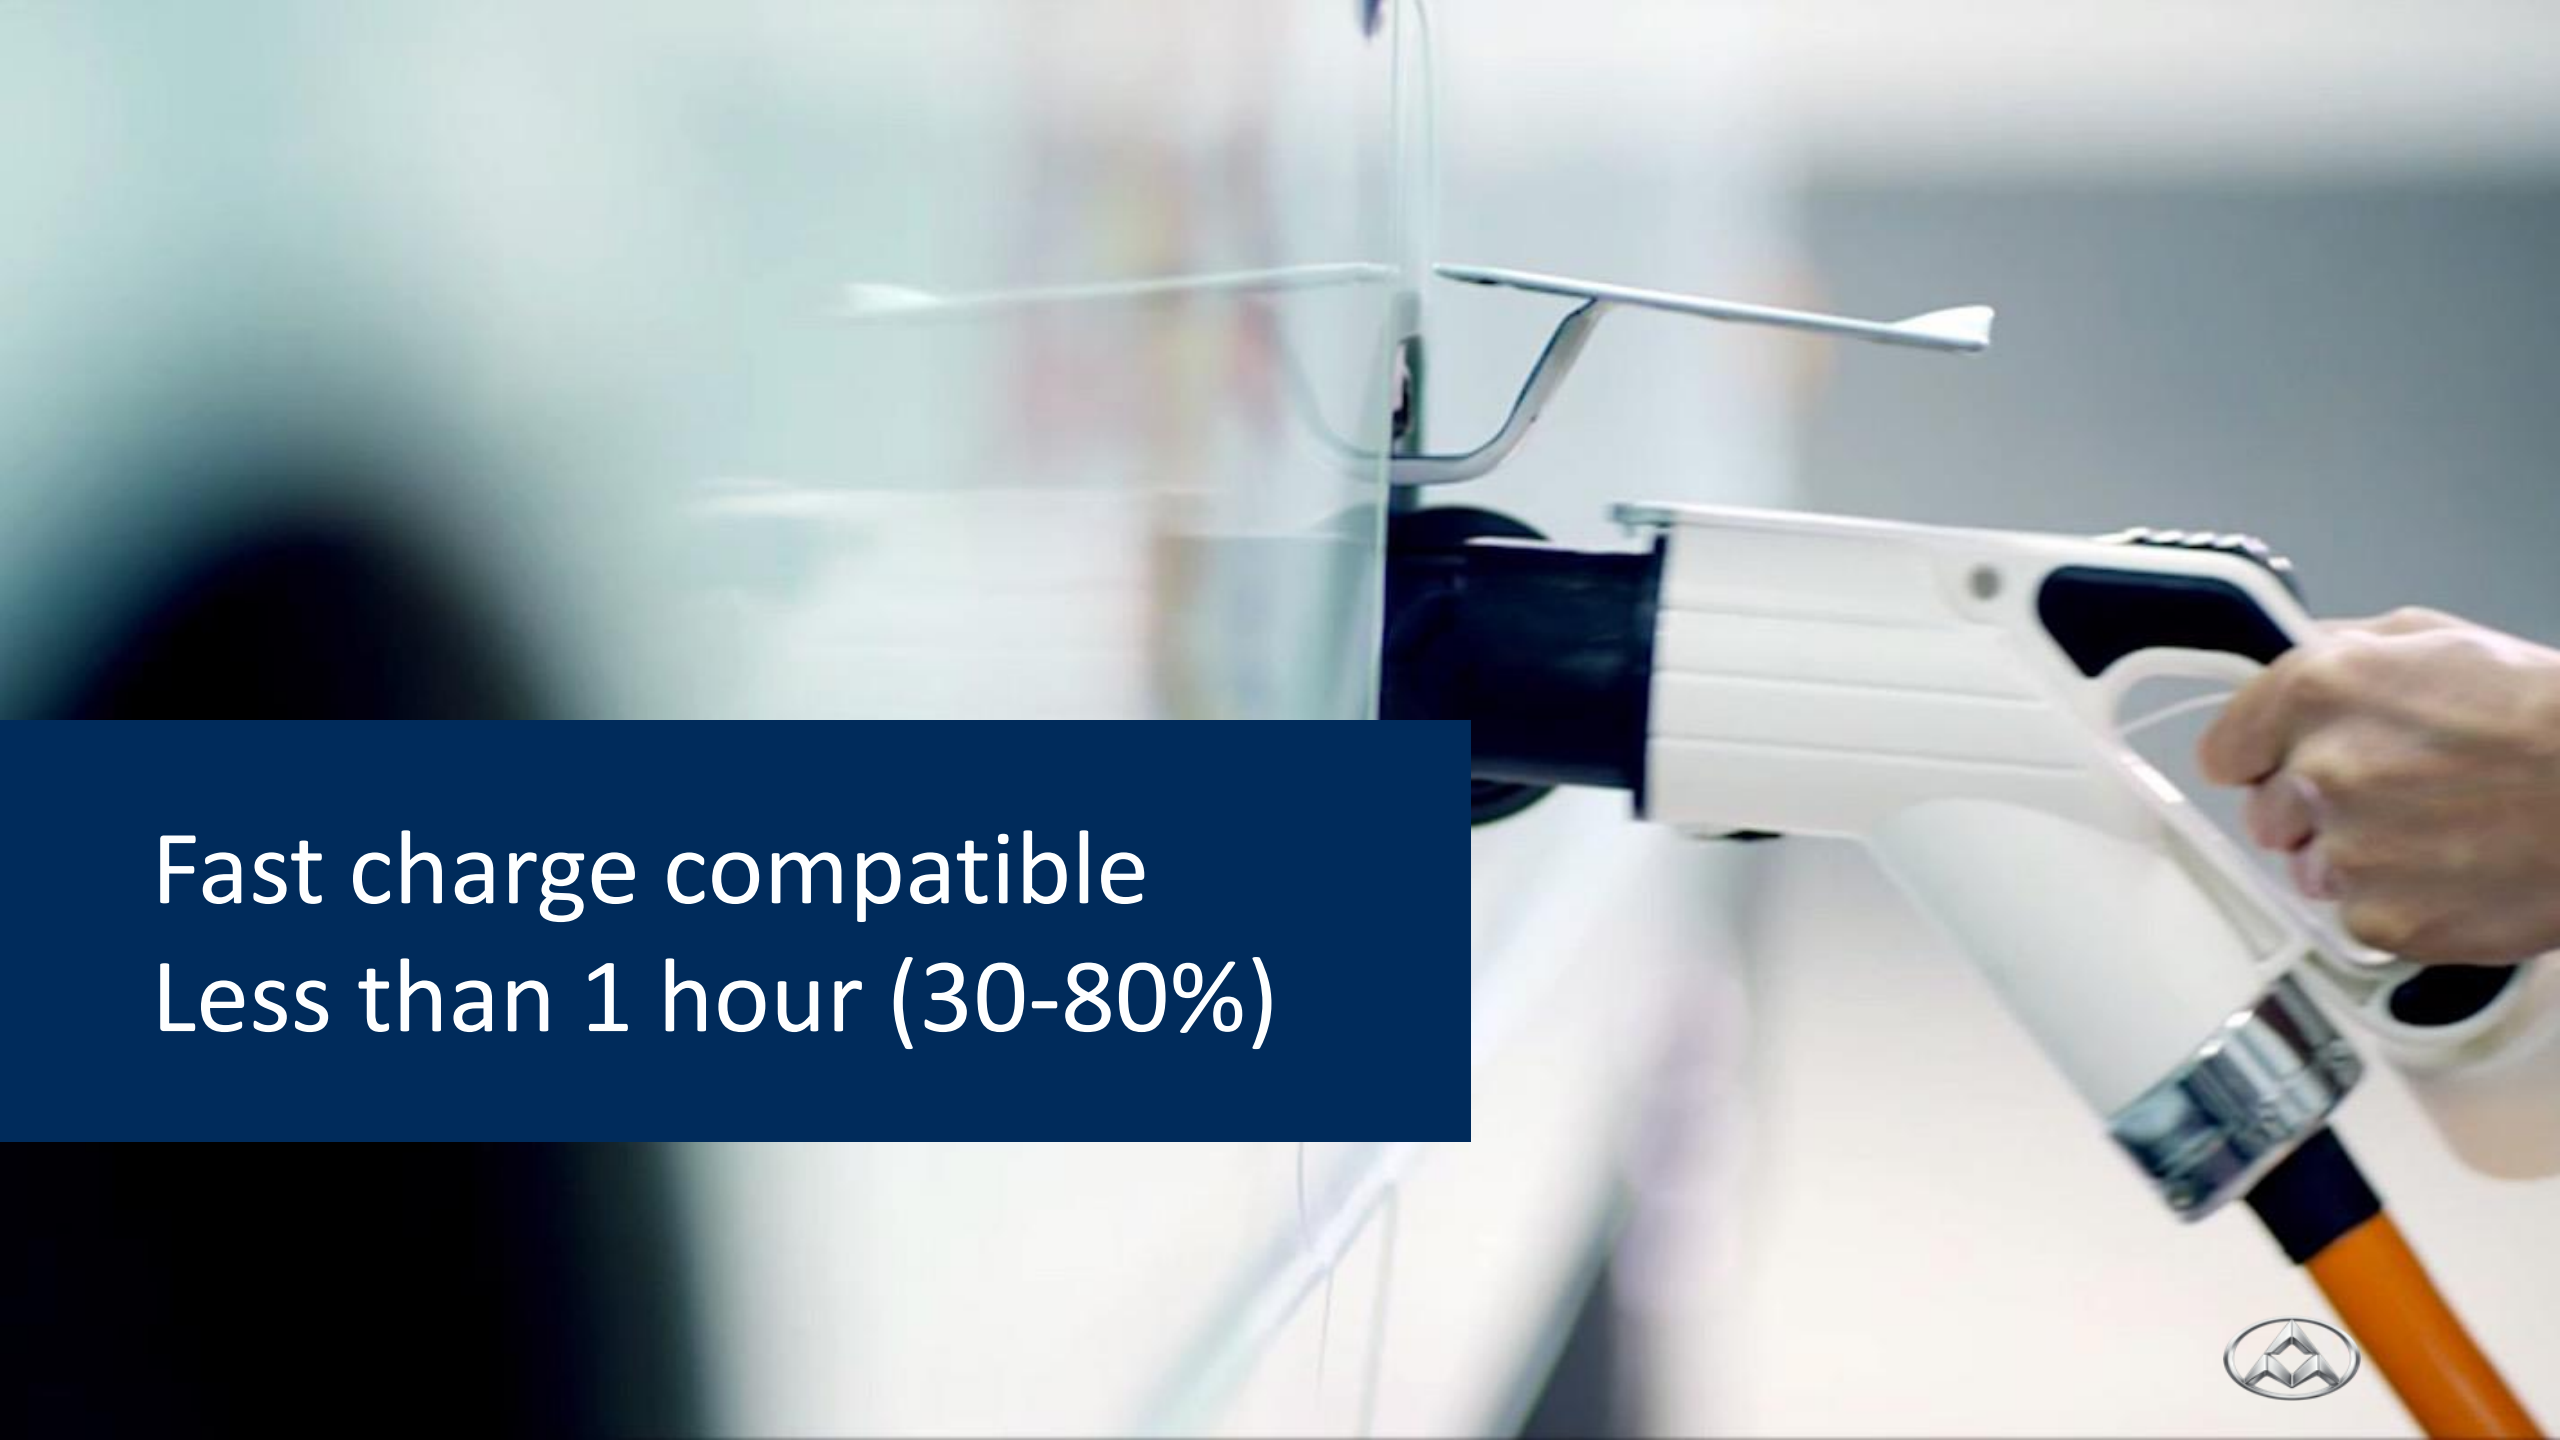
- Rutebileiernes Standardiserings Aksjeselskap
- Long history in the Automotive Industry, founded 1936
- Distributor of Suzuki and Isuzu from Japan.
- Large own dealer group RSA Bil covering urban areas in Norway
- Head office in Drammen
  - 5.000 m2 + 6.200 m2 (ware house)

SAIC MAXUS Distributor from end of 2018

Maxus EV80

Electric urban mobility available now!

Class leading electric range up to 200KM



Fast charge compatible
Less than 1 hour (30-80%)

Panel van 10,2m3 + 11,5m3 and Chassis

Payload up to 980 kg

Tow bar capacity 1250 kg

9 Seater

Positive TCO

Highligths EV80

Class leading range
200 km (Realistic)

No limit on delivery

Tow bar compatible

56kw/t battery

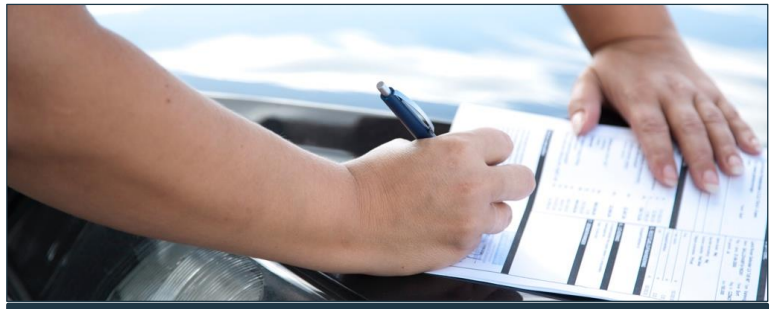
Better TCO than Diesel

Posten/ Bring – Vans in operation

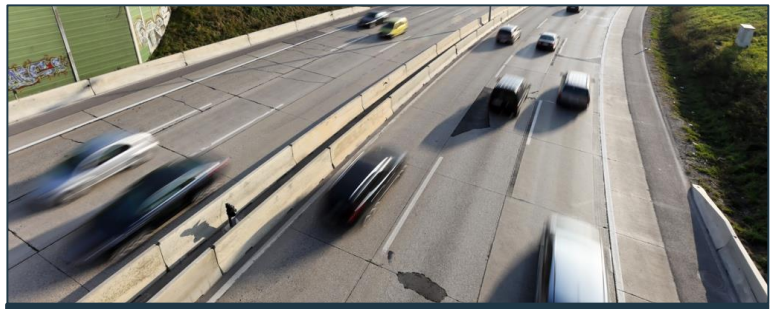
EV30

- New generation Electric LCV, Build as electric vehicle, saves approx 200 kg.
- Launch end of 2019
- Two versions（Short 4.8m³ and Long Wheelbase 6.1m³）
- Range up to 325 km
- Payload up to 1.000 kg

Key factors to increase EV adaptation on large van



Still favourable registration tax to ICE vehicles



Accessibility (priority in Bus lanes for E-LCV)

Continued favourable tollrates

Priority on parking and charging E-LCV in urban areas